

This Indenture witnesseth that David Greene, of Jamestown in the Colony of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations . . . of the Consideration hereafter mentioned as well as for is an other Causes and Considerations hath put and bound and by these presents doth put and bind his flave (slave) named Hannah being a Girl half Indian and Half-Negro and about one Year and fix (six) months old a servant and Apprentice unto George Mumford of South Kingstown and Colony aforesaid and to his Heirs and Afsigns (assigns) for and during that Term and Space of nineteen Years and fix (six) months fully to be completed and ended and to commence from the Day of the Date of these Presents During all which For as the faid (said) Slave or Servant Girl named Hannah fhall (shall) ferve (serve) the faid (said) George Mumford his Heirs and Afsigns (assigns) faithfully and behave her self as fuch (such) a flave (slave) ought to do. And the faid (said) George Mumford for himself, his Heirs and Afsigns doth Covenant the promise to and with the faid (said) David Greene, his Heirs, Executors and Administ. that in lieu of the aforesaid fervice (service), the aforesaid Fervant (Servant) Girl named Hannah shall be provided with all Things useful and neccessary for such a Fervant and at the End and Expiration of the faid (said) nineteen Years and fix (six) months shall be surrendered and delivered up to the faid (said) David Green his Heirs Executors or Administ. And that this is the Agreement of both Parties they have interchangeably to these presents set to their Hands and Feals (Seals) the fifth Day of December in the Tenth Year of the Reign of our Fovereign (Sovereign) Lord George King of Great Britain Ano D 1723.

It is the agreement that the said fervant (servant) Hannah be delivered with one fuit (suit) of Cloaths.

Signed Fealed (Sealed) and Delivered

David Green

In presents of Dan Updike
Anstis Updike

This Indenture witnesseth that David Green, of Jamestown in the Colony of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations . . . of the Consideration hereafter mentioned as well as for is an other Causes and Considerations hath put and bound and by these presents doth put and bind his flave named Hannah being a Girl half Indian and Half-Negro and about one Year and fix Months old a servant and Apprentice unto George Mumford of South Kingstown in the