THE
"JACOB ENGELBRECHT DEATH LEDGER
OF
FREDERICK COUNTY, MARYLAND
- 1820 - 1890

Over 10,500 entries, including the famous and infamous, more detailed entries than the Marriage Ledger. Some of the information he recorded: parents, siblings, in-laws, age and/or date of birth, occupations, religious affiliation, murderers and their victims, hangings, Civil War fatalities, deaths caused by epidemic and accidents, railroad deaths, deaths of "colored friends", location of death and/or burial, with events that are national and international as well as those occurring in Frederick County, and other general and/or specific observations.
